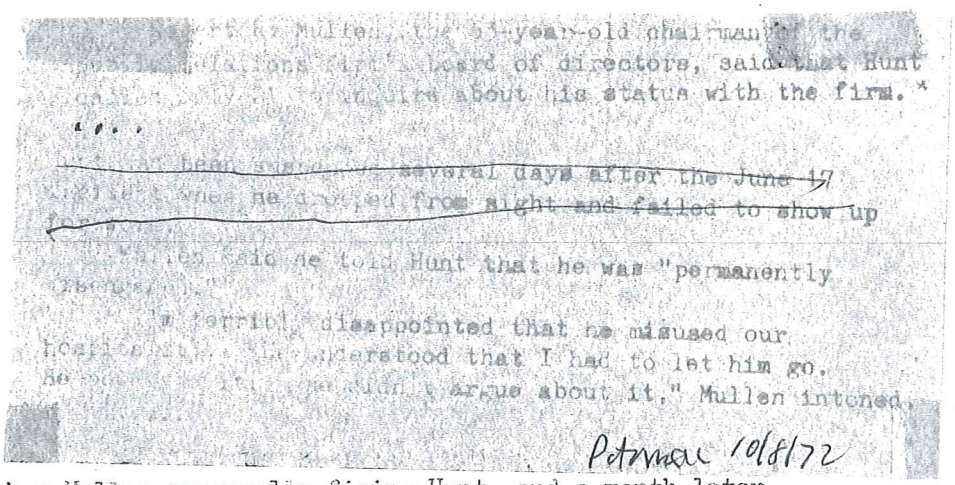
(What

It may not be important to learn which if either is truthful, but what Bennett here says under oath is almost 100% disputed by what Bob Woodward quotes Mullen as having said in an October 8, 1972 article he wrote for the Post's Sunday magazine, Potomac:



". . .

~~several days after the June 17~~

~~he dropped from sight and failed to show up~~

"permanently disappointed that he misused our understood that I had to let him go.

argue about it," Mullen intoned.

Potomac 10/8/72

date: Sept

This has Mullen personally firing Hunt and a month later.

Mullen seems a bit too cute with that "misused our hospitality" line. With his CIA record of past and present to talk about misuse or false pretense? And what he was even then keeping secret?